PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Barry C. Black, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Lord of all, You loved us before we loved You. Accept our thanksgiving for the gifts of life, love, and laughter.

Come among our lawmakers and manifest Your unifying love. Strengthen them in their work, leading them with Your wisdom. Lord, empower them to do Your work on Earth, even as it is done in Heaven. May they labor with the confidence that they are kept by Your power. Guide them into the future inspired by the knowledge that their times are in Your hands.

We pray in Your mighty Name.

2014 WORLD CUP

Mr. President, on the lower level of the Statue of Liberty, there is a poem. It says a lot. It was written by Emma Lazarus.

Give me your tired, your poor,

Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,  $\phantom{\Big|}$

The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.

Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me.

Those words encapsulate what is good about America. Those few lines represent the very makeup of this great country.

Over its history our Nation has welcomed the tired and poor of the world and made them strong. We have opened our doors to the best the world has to offer, and the United States has become better for it. Our country is a melting pot. Every aspect of our society reflects that, especially our athletes and soccer in particular.

I can remember when my middle son came home one night—he was just a boy; I assume he was maybe 10 years old—and he said, "I want to play soccer."

I said, "What?"

"I want to play soccer."

Soccer was not much of a sport in Nevada at that time. I thought, you know, if you are going to be an athlete, you have to play football, basketball, baseball, run track, high jump, long jump.

"I want to play soccer," he said.
